MILWAUKEE, Aug. 5th.

NEWS OF THE MORNING.

We have a great deal of important news this morning, and much interesting matter for our readers.

By telegraph, we have news from all quarters. From California and Nicaragua, the dates are recent. In the latter, the so-called "rebels" are making head against Walker, and he may yet be driven from the country.

The old Silver Grays of New York, headed by the grayest of them all, Frank Granger, are in session, trying to give either Fillmore or Buchanan a lift.

We have advices of a stormy time in President Pierce's Cabinet about these days. The party is reaping the whirlwind for the wind which he has sown in Kansas, and the leaders are troubled.

A very destructive fire occurred in Chicago on Wednesday night, the full particulars of which we give. Property to the amount of $150,000 was burned.

By the fire here yesterday, the old depot of the Central Railroad boats, when they used to run to New Buffalo, was entirely destroyed.

An able correspondent makes numerous good points in his criticism upon Mr. Orton's speech to the Buchanan men. The article is worthy of an attentive perusal.

Our correspondent F. gives us another of his graphic letters, this time concerning the very uppermost part of the Upper Mississippi.

The Senate yesterday, cross at the result in Iowa, failed to pass the Des Moines Rapids Bill over the veto. The House gave the Senate several doses of Kansas amendments.

See our local and advertising columns for various matters of interest, list of letters, &c.

False Witness to Prove a False Charge.

The News, to make out a case against Col. Fremont, avers that "he assured the Know Nothing Committee that he was in favor of the main principles of the American party, and would give them his cordial adherence." This is a pure invention. Col. Fremont never gave any "assurance" of the sort, as the Committee certified, over their own names, when the story was first started. Col. FREMONT, on this question, stands fair and square upon the Republican platform, which reads thus:

Resolved, That we invite the affiliation and cooperation of the men of all parties, however differing from us in other respects, in support of the principles herein declared; and believing that the spirit of our institutions, as well as the constitution of our country, guarantees liberty of conscience and equality of rights among citizens, we oppose all legislation impairing their security.

No man who knows anything about Col. FREMONT'S history, can doubt for one moment his fidelity to the principle of civil and religious liberty, announced in the foregoing resolution. The charge that he is a Know Nothing, or that he sympathizes in any way with the proscriptive doctrines of the K. N. party, is the merest electioneering clap-trap. His whole life proves the charge false.

FREMONT AND FOOTE IN 1850.—The Buchanier journals, apologists and admirers of Bully Brooks, are attempting to gull their innocent readers by accounts of an attack upon Senator Foote by Col. Fremont in 1850. It is amusing to see these old sinners roll up their eyes in holy horror of a man who, as they allege, struck a U. S. Senator. The falsehood is stoutly insisted on, but truth has at last overtaken it. The Albany Atlas, democratic, said in 1850:

Senator Foote, of Mississippi, spent the closing hours of the late session of Congress in penning a retraction to Senator Fremont, for gratuitous insult rendered in debate.

It seems that he chose to attribute to corrupt private motives the solicitude of Mr. Fremont to secure the passage of the California Mining Regulation bills. Called to account for such language, and stigmatized for its use, he resorted to a blow. Challenged, he had resource to a letter of explanation and retraction.

TOWN DESTROYED BY FIRE IN OHIO.—The town of Pomeroy, Ohio, was destroyed by fire at five on Friday afternoon. Sixty houses were destroyed, including all the business portion of the town, the Court House and the public offices. Two persons were killed by the falling of walls.

A Fatal Speech for the Sham Democracy

MESSRS. EDITORS:—The speech of Mr. ORTON, at Market Hall, on Wednesday evening, was a remarkable one—remarkable for admissions which were fatal to the consistency of his position, as a supporter of the Democratic party, and in our opinion fatal to the cause he advocated, in the judgment of the intelligent and well meaning men of the same party. In the outset he informed his hearers that he had been an old Whig and in 48 stood upon the Buffalo Platform, and that in no respect had he changed in the views he formerly held. "If any one asked, then, why he supported Buchanan for the Presidency, he would reply, because he had a mind to, it was no one's business but his own; and that it was the right of an American citizen to support for office whom he pleased." He might have added—right or wrong—with reason or without reason—and in the language of old Falstaff, "If reasons were as plenty as blackberries, he would not give any on compulsion." A very independent position for an individual voter, but hardly a convincing argument to those whom he was endeavoring to convert to the same political faith—or rather to the same political position. The sentiment, however was applauded to the echo, as though it found a response in the hearts of many who were present.

The first admission was, that the real issue in the present campaign was: No more slave States, or More slave States. The Republican party says "No more slave States," while the Democratic party says "More slave States may be added to the Union if the people of the new Territories want slavery, or such admission is necessary to conciliate the South and preserve the Union." The admission was a candid and honest one—that the cardinal policy of the Republican party was opposition to slavery extension, while the Democratic, if it did not favor such extension, yet acquiesced in it and adopted the policy. Let the freemen of the West note this frank avowal.

Upon this head, Mr. Orton denied that the prohibition of slavery in the Territories was the early policy of the Republic. To sustain this position he omitted all mention of the ordinance of '87, excluding slavery from the whole North-west, which at the adoption of the Federal Constitution constituted the entire Territory of the United States, and cited the admission of Tennessee and other States with slavery. But he forgot to tell his hearers that the Territories from which these States were formed were subsequently ceded to the Union; that slavery then existed in them, and that in some of them at least it was made the condition of cession by the ceding States, that slavery should not be prohibited.

Men may differ as to the right of Congress to refuse admission to a new State, because of slavery; but the Republican platform recognizes the right and duty of Congress to prohibit slavery from coming into free Territories, and if slavery is prohibited in the Territory, there is no great danger of the people of such free Territory forming a slave constitution.

Mr. Orton's next admission was that the constitutional power existed in Congress to prohibit Slavery in the Territories; but he objected to its exercise on the ground of policy. Thanks to Mr. O. for so much—that the Republican party is constitutional and is acting within clear and admitted constitutional limits. We can cheerfully bear the reproach of a policy which is the foundation of the growth and prosperity of our own State and of the great NORTH-WEST!

Mr. Orton's next admission was, that there were some things in the Cincinnati platform he could not swallow! He accepted what he liked and rejected the rest. Mr. O. evidently finds it difficult to go the entire animal, and his repugnance, I think, must be shared by many who elevate party obligations above the suggestions of reason and the whisperings of conscience.

Mr. Orton's next admission was, that Mr. Pierce's administration had been all wrong, but he thought the Democratic Party should not be held responsible for it. "It was within a possibility that some poor devil of a Republican might do wrong, but that party would not be accountable for his acts."

There is this slight difference in the two cases: Mr. O.; that Mr. PIERCE is the accredited head of his party; that he has only carried out faithfully the policy inaugurated by his party in Congress; that the measures and policy of his administration have been endorsed by the party in the Cincinnati platform, and that Mr. BUCHANAN has publicly and solemnly pledged himself to carry these out if he should be elected. It will not do, Mr. O., for the party to shirk this responsibility, and to make poor PIERCE the scapegoat of its admitted political sins. Walk up gentlemen, and face the music!

Mr. O.'s next admission was, that Brooks in his attack on Sumner, acted like a bully and a coward, but as Mr. Toots would say, "its of no consequence." It was about the same as if he should get into a fight on the bridge and be knocked down. We should be very sorry to have such a catastophe happen to our friend, but we really could not give to such an event the significance which attaches to a SENATOR of the United States being stricken down in the Senate Chamber for "words spoken in debate;" to the fact that the Democratic party in Congress refused to expel the ruffian who did it; that he was unanimously re-elected to the seat he had disgraced; that his conduct is sustained by almost the entire South; and that it has been openly avowed that brute force was the appropriate weapon with which to meet Northern argument.

Mr. O's next admission was, that the whole Kansas matter was a humbug! The original introduction and passage of the bill was a humbug. The parties who had been conspicuous in Kansas affairs, from Douglas, Shannon, Lecompte, and Stringfellow down, were humbugs. He should have added that the introduction of the principle into the Cincinnati platform, was a humbug, and that the support of Mr. Buchanan by Northern Democrats, really, and in some instances, avowedly on the ground that he will not carry out the Slavery policy of his party, is a greater humbug. Mr. Buchanan's whole antecedents force upon us the conviction that he is no better than his platform.

We cannot, however, agree with Mr. O., that the Kansas outrages are a humbug, and we are surprised to hear an American citizen avow such an opinion; nor do we agree with him that the true solution of the difficulty is to let the parties "fight it out." We attach more importance than Mr. O. seems to do, to the lives, the liberties, the security, the constitutional rights of the people of a vast Territory of the United States.

The next admission of Mr. O., and the last I shall mention, was, that the country was in a great crisis, and in imminent danger. In such a crisis, Mr. O., urged it would not do to entrust the affairs of State to political "tinkers." In this we perfectly agree with the gentleman.

Less than four years ago, when Mr. Pierce was triumphantly elected, and the Democratic party was in its fullest sway, the country was quiet and prosperous; we had come to a "finality" on the Slavery question; the party pledged itself not to renew the Slavery agitation, and Mr. Pierce agreed to "frown" it down. In the midst of this quiet, in the face of these pledges, in defiance of all warning, the Democratic "tinkers" in Congress, Franklin Pierce aiding and abetting, set to work deliberately, gratuitously, under the pressure of no public sentiment, or political exigency, to break down the settled policy of the party in order to gratify political aspirants in their Southern subserviency, and they have "tinkered" the country into the most alarming crisis in our history. We are not disposed to trust such "tinkers" longer; or to elect James Buchanan to "tinker" on, as he is committed and pledged to do, according to the measures and policy of Mr. Pierce's Administration. MILWAUKEE, Aug. 13.

Letter from a Kansas Emigrant.

The following letter has been sent in for publication by the Secretary of the Ft. Atkinson Kansas Aid Society. It breathes a good spirit, and we give it a place with pleasure:

In Camp, Banks of the Missouri, July 31st, 1856.

DEAR FRIEND:—I embrace the present moment to pencil a line to let you know my where-abouts. We joined the Worcester company (Dr. Cutters) at Quincy, Iowa, on Tuesday last, and have therefore had a little taste of camp life.

I have stood the journey thus far much better than I had expected, having walked 18 miles before 7 o'clock A. M., on one occasion, with no inconvenience except sore feet; these are blistered in several places, but are getting better.

We strike our tents at 3 o'clock A. M. and march from 20 to 25 miles per day. There are now in our camp over 100 men, being the Worcester, Chicago and Ottawa companies combined. We are obliged to be constantly on our guard, as there are spies lurking about our camp, and we think companies of ruffians ready to attack us at the first favorable opportunity. Last night about 20 of us (myself among the number) advanced about 7 miles from the main camp to get provision, leaving our arms principally behind us. About dusk we discovered several spies, and at one point several suspicious looking men. We were too far from camp to obtain our arms, and accordingly resolved to do our best with the few we had. Fortunately the Ottawa company sent a few of their men who brought their arms; this was seen by the spies and they forbore their attack. We reached the river about noon to-day; Col. Eldridge, Capt. Butterfield, Capt. Harvey, Dr. Cutler, Dr. Cutter, and Col. Hyatt are with us. My appetite is decidedly improving. You would need no better proof of this than to see me at the mess-box of tent No. 3. My face and hands have assumed a different color since leaving Wisconsin.

We have a fine set of men, nobly representing 10 different States. There is however one fault —profanity. Mrs. Cutter is with us, nursing the sick, cheering the others and doing all in her power to make us comfortable. I asked her a day or two since if she was not lonely. "Oh, no," said she, "I have not had an opportunity to enjoy myself so much for 10 years." You have probably seen her letter in the Tribune. I would give a half dollar for a late newspaper, and thanks into the bargain.

There are about 300 ruffians ready to attack us across the river, and we are preparing for them. Yesterday I made over 100 cartridges after we camped. If they do not molest us we will go to the Territory as quietly as we would go to church, but if they do intend to drive us back, they will find that those men who have been reared almost beneath the shadow of Bunker Hill, still retain the spirit of their fathers. Yesterday the settlers near our camp sent us some beef, bread, milk, etc., and last night organized themselves into a military company for mutual defence. Yes it is too true—the settlers of Iowa have been threatened by these ruffians. Is the North safe? No! These men had dared to condemn the outrages in Kansas. They are Massachusetts men and women, and had assisted their brethren on their weary way, and now their little school house, together with their dwellings, are threatened with destruction. Tell our friends to be ready, for I think we shall need assistance before we get through with this undertaking. I feel my nerves strengthened as I approach the scene of conflict and danger. But I must stop. Excuse a half sheet, it was all I could get, and I write this on a board (with a pencil) at the foot of a large cottonwood tree, the turbid Missouri on my right and a thick forest on my left. The smoke of our camp fires rising through the foliage, and our tents pitched in rows on either side.

Believe me your true volunteer,

J. W. W.

Col. Fremont's Accounts.

The small slanders which have been circulating thro' the Buchaneer press for some time past, charging Col. FREMONT, directly, or by insinuation, with unfair dealings towards the Government, have at length found a sponsor in the person of Senator BIGLER, of Pennsylvania, Mr. BUCHANAN'S right hand man. This gentleman has offered a resolution in the Senate, looking to an investigation into Col. FREMONT'S accounts—long since audited and settled by the proper officer—and Col. FREMONT'S friends have promptly and unanimously voted to indulge Mr. BIGLER. No doubt the latter acts, if not at the instigation, at least with the knowledge and consent of his patron, Mr. BUCHANAN, who is thus placed in the attitude of encouraging a personal warfare upon his political adversary. We doubt whether he will take any thing by his motion.

The following is a sketch of the brief debate in the Senate, on considering BIGLER'S resolution:

Mr. Bigler called up his resolution submitted on Saturday concerning Col. Fremont's accounts.

Mr. Weller hoped the Pacific Railroad bill would be considered.

Mr. Hunter urged the importance of first considering the Appropriation bill.

Mr. Seward always voted for such resolutions of inquiry. Truth could do no harm to anybody.

Mr. Hale was glad the resolution had been introduced. It was rather tame work to make speeches for a candidate against whom no charges could be made. The only thing he had heard before was that Fremont once ate dog meat. The reply to that was, that the people intended to give him something better to eat. They would chase a Buck down for him in Autumn [Laughter.]

The yeas and nays having been called on Mr. Bigler's motion, Mr. Adams said he was sent here to pass laws for the public interest, and not discuss the merits of the various Presidential candidates. He voted "No."

The resolution was taken up by a vote of 29 against 14.

Mr. Wilson said he regarded all proceedings of this character, whether made by one political party or another, as small business. The accounts of Mr. Fremont for the money placed in his hands by Government had been settled. A report had been made by Elisha Whittlesey, covering hundreds of claims under various laws of congress for unsettled balances of public money. In this report were found the names of Worth, Gaines, Harney, and some of the noblest and best men of the Republic; but Mr. Fremont's name was not there. The resolution was an attempt to blast Mr. Fremont's reputation and character. It appeared to be a blow from Mr. Buchanan at his rival, given through his spokesman on this floor. It would do no harm.

Mr. Bigler denied that Mr. Buchanan was in any way responsible for his (Bigler's) action on this floor. He (Buchanan) had not been consulted in the matter. These charges against Mr. Fremont, with regard to financial matters, has been extensively circulated, and it was due to him they should be refuted from official sources if it could be done. He had anticipated no opposition to such a resolution from the friends of that gentleman.

Mr. Wilson replied that Mr. Fremont's friends were abundantly able to take charge of his reputation.

Mr. Trumbull said, if there was to be a general overhauling of accounts, it might be well to serve all the Presidential candidates alike. He, therefore, moved to amend the resolution, by adding the clause that the President be requested to cause to be communicated to the Senate at the same time similar information with regard to all the transactions of Mr. Buchanan as an officer of the Government, and particularly showing how much money had been paid him since he entered the public service; also, to communicate all the correspondence of Mr. Buchanan with the Government, especially that relative to the Ostend Conference, and the reasons why he was removed from his position as Minister at the Court of St. James; also, if removed at his own request and the reasons for his asking to retire, if any.

Mr. Douglas thought Mr. Trumbull ought also to include Mr. Fillmore.

Mr. Trumbull said that was not of such importance, but he had no objection.

Mr. Wilson and Mr. Seward urged the propriety of offering the amendment as a distinct proposition.

The amendment was rejected and the resolution adopted.

FIRE AT MADISON.—A fire broke out, about half-past 10 o'clock, Wednesday evening, in the Cabinet Ware-Rooms of O. C. BUCK & Co., which were totally destroyed. Loss $12,000; insured for $6000. The fire is supposed to have been designedly set.

A Trip to the Northwest.

SANDY LAKE, July 29, '56.

We left Crow Wing—the last civilized settlement on the Mississippi—on Thursday, bound for Lake Superior. Our party was made up of L., an old Indian trader, B., a Minnesota capitalist, W. of Milwaukee, myself, and four voyageurs—two half-breeds, one Indian, and a French Canadian. Our conveyances were two bark canoes, well provisioned and equipped. The inhabitants of Crow Wing gave us a parting salute, as we left them standing on the bank of the river, and we returned it with right good spirit, mentally hoping that we might feel in the same happy mood when we reached our journey's end—three hundred miles distant.

After running up the strong current of the Mississippi, sometimes paddling and sometimes poling the canoes, for three or four miles, we stopped for dinner. Bill of Fare—a warm cake, fried pork, and dried Buffalo tongue. That afternoon we made fifteen miles and camped, stretching our musqueto bars for a covering, and spreading our blankets for a couch. A company of Indians camped with us, and their songs were kept up until fatigue closed our eyes in sound sleep. The next morning we made a solid breakfast on some game we killed, and pushed along. At noon we passed the mouth of Rabbit Lake outlet. On this lake there is a large band of Chippewa Indians. Government has been at considerable expense in furnishing this settlement with agricultural implements, and in endeavors to teach them how to cultivate the soil. The result has not been satisfactory. They can only be induced to raise corn and potatoes. The Indian will readily learn the vices of the white man, but not his virtues, or methods of progression. There is contamination in the association of the Aborigines with civilization and the ways thereof.—This fact will be noticed by every traveller as he progresses into an Indian country.

At evening we camped at the mouth of Pine River, a western tributary of the Mississippi, which runs back into a fine lumber region. Up to this point—forty or fifty miles above Crow Wing—we had formed but an indifferent opinion of the country through which we were journeying. Grey sand was conspicuous, and the forest indicated a barren soil. Some good pine along the river, but more we were told in the back country. Saturday morning we were early aroused by the monotonous humming of those pests of the forest—musquetoes—and by the more serious announcement from one of the men that our Indian was missing. This proved to be a fact, and as the fellow belonged to our canoe the desertion was a matter of the most direct personal importance. Ah, Monnee-meg! that was a scurvy trick you served us, and our only satisfaction when we think of it is, the hope that your copper-colored hide will get handsomely "tanned" when some of that party get back to their homes. Then came a serious council.—Should our canoe now turn back, and lose the fifty miles already travelled, or endeavor to push on, with your contributor taking the post of voyageur? We thought of Daniel Webster's words —"put hand to the plow and never look back"—and we kept our eyes and resolution turned up stream. So with a hard prospect ahead, we took to the stern of the canoe, the paddle, the strong current of the Mississippi, and a promise of blisters in numbers indefinite. Although I prided myself on my boating attainments, I found that getting a canoe up the Mississippi was no boy's play. However, I improved as we proceeded, and about the time I had fairly "settled to the work," we hailed a downward-bound canoe, with two voyageurs in it. An arrangement with them was a matter speedily accomplished, and I shall never forget the supreme satisfaction with which I vacated my post, and installed therein a stout-built, good-looking young Indian. Just then, in the language of Peter Plumbscott, I felt "confoundedly comfortable."

Towards evening we made our first portage.—The Upper Mississippi is very crooked, and there are many points where a portage of five to fifteen rods will save a distance of as many miles, following the stream. After supper we retired early, but not to sleep. The voyageurs, from the effects probably of an extra potation, felt uncommonly musical. They commenced singing their Indian songs, while lying on their backs by the camp fire, and their doleful melodies kept us awake until mid-night. And then I could not sleep. We were camped on the shores of a quiet bay, with a lovely island at its mouth, covered with green foliage. The stars of heaven looked down upon us with their diamond eyes—the moon threw a flood of silvery sheen on the sleeping waters, and as I gazed out on the charming scene the mind went off into reveries that kept sleep from my eyelids until near the break of day.

The three following days we were journeying through a country similar in character, and meeting with incidents similar in kind. An occasional confab with passing Indians, a hunt on shore or a shot on the waters, and short rambles to see this thing or that, were sufficient diversities to keep our journey from being monotonous.

For one hundred and fifty miles above St. Paul both shores of the Mississippi are settled, altho' sparsely. This takes you to Crow Wing. Above Crow Wing there is not a permanent white resident. The country above and below Crow Wing differs materially. Below it is mostly prairie; above it is a continuous forest. And there is also the greatest difference in the soil. Below Crow Wing it is clay and a greyish sandy loam. A similar character of soil continues for some forty miles above, and then you strike the richest of bottom lands, composed of deep deposits of alluvion. On these bottom lands grows a forest vegetation, the heaviest and handsomest that eye ever looked upon. The timber is principally elm, soft maple, and birch, which grow out in great groups, and the branches are interwoven so thickly that the foliage completely obscures the sky. There is majesty and romance in such a forest. Wild roses, violets, and other beautiful flowers carpet the earth; the grape dangles its clusters from the tree-tops, where the vine crawls up for sunlight, and thus the woods are made up of festooned arches, through which the sun's hottest rays cannot penetrate. Wild rice grows luxuriantly on the low grounds, giving to the natives a goodly quantity of wholesome food.

The winters of these northern latitudes must necessarily be cold, but they are not blustering, and there are seldom very heavy falls of snow. But the soil is so rich and moist, and the sun is so genial in summer, that agricultural products must flourish rapidly and afford bountiful harvests. The Mississippi is navigable for three hundred miles above Crow Wing for first class boats. It has an average width of probably 400 feet, and none of its main channels have less than three feet and a half of water in a dry season. With these facilities, of course there is no hindrance to the speedy development of this rich country; and in view of the fact that government is already preparing these lands for market, we may soon expect the sounds of industry over what is now an unbroken wilderness. The Mississippi has also many tributaries, some of them navigable for small class steamboats, and on many of these streams there are magnificent lumber regions. I cannot but regard this country as well deserving the attention of men of capital and enterprise.

At noon on the sixth day after leaving Crow Wing we reached the Sandy Lake Portage, three hundred miles above St. Paul, and there, after enjoying a pleasant meal, we bade adieu to the Old Father of Waters, the Carotid Artery of the American Continent. After a three mile tramp, and shooting a goodly number of pigeons, we reached Sandy Lake—amid the growling of half-famished dogs, scampering of primitively dressed children, and staring of greasy, good-natured looking Indians. And here, on the borders of this handsome water, our tent lifts its white ridge among the smoky lodges of our swarthy neighbors—to them a substantial wonder, simple as it is. From here we intend to find our way across to the St. Louis river, and down that to Lake Superior. F.

Wisconsin Institute for the Education of the Blind.

The additional buildings of the Institute at Janesville being now near their completion, and a very competent corps of instructors employed, at the head of whom is Dr. W. H. CHURCHMAN, the Trustees have issued a Circular calling the attention of parents and guardians of blind children to the benefits which are offered to them, and to be had freely, for the asking. All children, of sound mind and body, sent to the Institution, will be educated without expense to their parents, brought under good training, supplied with wholesome food, and prepared for usefulness in life.

By addressing S. C. BURNHAM, President, or I. J. FARROWS, Secretary, of the Board, copies of the circular may be obtained

Too Good to be Lost.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—The grand finale of the "largest meeting of the unterrified Democracy ever held in Milwaukee," was, to say the least, comical, if not a little ridiculous.

After hooting about the streets for a short time the "unterrified" adjourned to a Lager Bier Saloon, where the enthusiasm waxed stronger and stronger. Soon ex-candidate-for-Governor—Upham—mounted one of the tables, with hair dishevelled and a glass of bier brandished aloft, he said:

FELLOW CITIZENS—and Gentlemen—we have a party in this State and throughout the Union—(hurrah, hurrah, hurrah,)—we have a party in this State and throughout the Union, who wish to dictate to us what we shall drink, when we shall drink—who say that we shall drink no lager bier at all, (enthusiastic cheers, and cries of order)—in every State and Territory—in every State and Territory—ha, ha, ha!

Mr Upham took his seat.

Esq. Foote, not satisfied with the wind up of brother Upham, mounted another table and commenced by pitching his voice in too high a key to be understood. Soon was heard—nigger party—no better than niggers—no difference between niggers and crows, only their fluttering. Gentlemen, we have feasted on realities to-night —listened to matters of fact enough to convince any man that he ought to vote for FREMONT—augh—augh—augh—Buchanan.

All of the unterrified were charged to the muzzle with a cheer to be let off at the close of the sentence, and they did cheer most lustily, and by the time Esq. Foote had cleared his throat of that nasty Fremont and gulped out Buchanan, the cheering was all done, and that name that the mountain had labored to bring forth, was born in silence. V.

IMMENSE CONFLAGRATION.

MICHIGAN SOUTHERN RAILROAD FREIGHT DEPOTS BURNED.

ROCK ISLAND IN-FREIGHT DEPOT DESTROYED.

Tremendous Destruction of Freight.

Several Warehouses, Factories and Dwellings Destroyed.

Probable Loss Estimated at $150,000.

We regret to announce that last evening our city was visited by one of the most destructive fires if not the most destructive, known in the annals of our history. About half-past eight o'clock, while thousands were listening to the speech of the Hon. Anson Burlingame, of Massachusetts, the alarm bell sounded for the Second District, and immediately the whole firmament told too truly that the work of destruction had begun on no small scale. Clark street was soon crowded by thousands hurrying southward to the Rock Island and Michigan Southern freight depots. When our reporter reached the fire, the Rock Island House, the out and in freight depots of the Michigan Southern depot, and DeWitt Robinson's Freight and Commission warehouse, were all in one terrific blaze. The firemen had just arrived, and were energetically at work preparing their pipes and engines, and in tearing down out houses and removing goods and furniture but before anything had been done to check the flames, Goss & Phillip's Sash and Door Factory was in flames, and the fire crossed Clark street, and caught the in-Freight House of the Rock Island Railroad. Westward it scorched the large new grain warehouse of the Rock Island Railroad, burned up fifteen or twenty freight cars, and threatened to destroy the large warehouse of Messrs. Flint & Wheeler. Northwardly it scorched the commission warehouse of Messrs. Pomeroy & Co. and the Lumber and Sash and Door Establishment of Messrs. Wood, Henderson & Co. Eastwardly the Rock Island In-Freight Depot was entirely destroyed, several cars scorched, the Eastern Exchange Hotel threatened, and also the Machine and Car Shops of the Rock Island Railroad.

Through the energy and perseverance of the firemen and employees of the Railroad Companies, the progress of the flames was here arrested and every effort made to save as much freight as possible.

The freight in the Michigan Southern Railroad depots was nearly all destroyed. The flames progressed so rapidly that before assistance could be procured it was impossible to gain admittance to the buildings. Probably two-thirds of that in the Rock Island depot was saved. The loss in freight alone cannot be less than $60,000.

The warehouse of DeWitt Robinson was filled with goods, which is said to have been wholly destroyed. We are informed that charges paid on this freight alone amounted to $4,000.

The Rock Island Hotel was also entirely destroyed, with most of the furniture. It was owned by Col. Wilder, and is probably insured.

Goss & Philips Sash and Door Factory was entirely destroyed. The stock on hand amounted to about $30,000—most of which was either burned or destroyed by the breakage. They had just piled up a cargo of first-class lumber, all of which was burned.

A saloon next to the Rock Island House was entirely destroyed. It was called the Walker House. Here the fire originated, at least that was the rumor last night.

When the fire was at its full height, the scene was one of most marked excitement. Along the railroad tracks which surrounded the fire, the "iron horse" was most furiously screaming, while it dragged away the burning cars, loaded with goods, half scorched, which had been rescued from the depots. Railroad men and firemen were dashing into the blazing buildings and dragging out the freight that was being consumed, while over all was the loud crackling of falling timbers.

At one time it was greatly feared that the splendid new warehouse of the Rock Island Railroad would have been destroyed, which contained about 200,000 bushels of grain, and the large warehouse of Messrs. Flint and Wheeler, containing about 100,000 bushels of grain.

The machine-shop of the Rock Island R. R. was on fire several times, but by dint of great exertions was saved.

The furniture was moved from the Eastern Exchange Hotel, but it was not damaged.

Pomeroy's Warehouse was scorched but no injury to the goods.

Very fortunately there was scarcely a breath of air stirring, else there is no estimating where it would have stopped, or what the extent of the damage it would have been.

Nearly all the merchants in the city were gathered around the two large grain warehouses which were scorched, ready to render every possible assistance to arrest the flames.

The following is a list of the amount of property destroyed:

Michigan Southern In Freight Depot
" " Out "
Rock Island In Freight Depot.
Rock Island House.
Walker House.
Robinson's Warehouse.
Goss & Phillip's Sash Factory.
Two Dwelling Houses.
Fifteen or twenty freight cars.
Large amount of freight, &c., &c.

We observed Mr. Tracy, Superintendent of the Rock Island Railroad, among the foremost in battling with the fiery elements.

We could not learn of any accident having occurred in the whole course of the evening.—One fireman fainted away while holding the hose pipe.

The total loss cannot fall short of $150,000; but it is scarcely possible to arrive at anything like an accurate estimate.

We were unable to learn anything regarding the amount that is covered by insurance. To-day we will find out full particulars, and report in to-morrow's paper.—Chi. Dem. Press of Yesterday.

BALTIMORE, Aug. 13.

A tremendous rain storm, amounting almost to a water spout, commenced here about 8 o'clock this evening. Considerable damage was done.

Iowa All Right.

We are now completely "out of the woods" with respect to the result in the First District.—An intelligent gentleman just from Burlington, informs us that the majority of Curtis over Hall for Congress will be over a thousand, and probably more. The returns from 25 out of the 36 counties in the District, as given in the Hawk-Eye of Tuesday, foot up 3,700 for Curtis and 2,029 for Hall, making the former 1,671 ahead. The majority for Davis over Leffler in the Second District will, it is believed, reach from 3,000 to 4,000.—Chicago Dem. Press, of yesterday.

Besides carrying both Congressional Districts, the Republicans have elected their entire State ticket by sweeping majorities, and secured a two third majority in the Legislature. It is, in short a perfect rout of the Buchaneers. Yet they claimed Iowa as sure for them. How sure, the results of the election shows.

From the Iowa State Gazette.

WASHINGTON, D. C., }
Senate U. S., August 1, 1856. }

SIR:—You and your readers and the public generally will be glad to hear, I am sure, that I have this day presented to the President of the United States, for his approval, an act making an appropriation of two hundred thousand dollars for the removal of the obstructions to the navigation of the Mississippi river at the Des Moines Rapids. It will become a law.

Your ob't serv't, G. W. JONES.

This piece of news was telegraphed to Iowa on the eve of the election. But it did not help the Buchaneers. The bill has since been vetoed by President PIERCE, and passed again, over the veto, in the House, by 130 yeas to 51 nays.

THE "TEN CENT SPEECH."—The Madison Patriot attempts to get away from the effect of one of the speeches made at Madison recently by W. K. WILSON, defending Mr. Buchanan's oft quoted "ten cent" speech, by calling Wilson "Barstows 20 per cent agent," and a "Shanghai in disguise."

It is of no use, neighbor of the Patriot!—Wilson, Orton and all the other Barstow men, the regular "Forty," are working hard for Buchanan.

ANSON BURLINGAME AT CHICAGO.—Mr. BURLINGAME arrived at Chicago, Wednesday afternoon; was received and welcomed at the depot by a crowd of young men, and in the evening addressed a gathering of five thousand freemen in an able and eloquent speech of two hours' duration. He was to speak, yesterday at the Mass Meeting at Morris, and will be in Chicago again to-day. Will not our Fremont Club invite him to Milwaukee?

WILL NOT REMOVE LECOMPTE.—While Mr. Pierce retains Jeffreys Lecompte as Judge of the Courts in Kansas, it is quite certain there is no relenting in his determination to subdue the Territory. When he removed Shannon, some were fain to hope that better counsels had at last prevailed. Such a hope is clearly unfounded.—Shannon always showed a willingness to do the work assigned him, but his nerves were often unsteady. In the Wakarusa campaign, one of the officers of the U. S. Government, who still retains his office, declared they "would have destroyed Lawrence if Shannon had not been a d—d fool." The ruffians have cursed him for months, not for any opposition to them, but for his imbecility in carrying out their views. This is doubtless the secret of his removal.—Cleveland Herald.

GREAT DAMAGE BY LIGHTNING AND RAIN IN NEW HAMPSHIRE AND VERMONT.—The Boston Atlas of the 11th inst. gives over a column and a half of condensed items of disasters by lightning and rain in New Hampshire and Vermont, during last week. The dams on the Mystic, Merrimac, and Sugar Rivers have all been swept away. Bridges, roads, and even houses have disappeared, causing an immense loss. Several persons have been struck by lightning. The schooner Belle, of Cohasset, and the schooner Pearl, of Rockport, were struck by lightning, killing one seaman, named Lawrence Griffin.—Barns, houses, and light-houses have been struck and burned.

KILLED BY LIGHTNING.—Last Monday evening, about six o'clock, some four miles west of this city, two brothers, Germans by birth, were struck by lightning. One was instantly killed and other wholly paralyzed. They were employed on the Watertown and Columbus railroad, and were on their way to their homes in this city. Being overtaken by a severe thunder storm, they stepped under a shed belonging to Mr. Walter Vaness for a temporary shelter from the rain, and while there met with the casualty that deprived one of life and left the other badly burnt. Their names were Frederick and John Schrowder—the former of whom is dead.—Watertown Democrat, Aug. 14th.

LAUNCHED.—At Manitowoc, by S. BATES & SON, a schooner for the Manitowoc and Racine lumber trade of 120 tons, dimensions as follows:—Length on deck 92 ft, breadth of beam, 24 ft; depth of hold, 6 ft; capacity in cargo, from 90 to 100 thousand; draft of water, 6 feet—The centre board is 25 feet long, and masts 75 feet. The model is of medium sharpness—the bottom is dead flat, or without dead rise, and she is calculated by her builders to be one of the strongest and best lumber vessels on the Lake.

Look out for the schooner Belle, of Manitowoc.

VESSEL ASHORE.—The brig Arabian, bound for Chicago, loaded with salt, went ashore eight miles below Presque Isle, during the last week. Her Captain left her with six feet water in her hold. He will leave this morning with the tug John Owen, and the steam pumps belonging to the Buffalo Mutual Insurance Co.—Det. Adv.

COMMERCE OF MONTREAL.—The Montreal Herald contains a statement of the imports at that port for the month ending July 4th, 1856, compared with the corresponding period of the previous year. A very marked increase is shown. In June, 1856, the total value of goods imported was £546,963, against £409,256 in the same month of 1855. While there was a falling off in the imports of free goods, from £220,431 to £138,865, the amount of the dutiable goods imported had more than doubled, being £184,024 in June 1855, and £408,098 in June, 1856. The value of the goods for consumption during the two periods, was respectively £388,422 and £457,036. The amount of duty collected in June, 1855, was only £27,880; in June, this year, it was £99,806. Of the articles paying a mixed specific and ad valorem duty, including tea, coffee, spirits, tobacco, sugar, &c., the amounts entered for consumption this year in every case exceeded those of last year, except in the single article of refined sugar. The imports of goods paying 12½ per cent, and which are in future to pay 15, had increased from £83,696 to £217,156. Much of the increase is, of course, due to the desire to import goods, and to take them out of bond, before the new tariff should come into operation.

COMMERCIAL.

THE MARKET, &c.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY SENTINEL,
MILWAUKEE, August 15, 1856.

Very little doing in market, yesterday, in any kind of grain, and the receipts from the country are next to nothing. We shall, doubtless, begin to get reasonable supplies of the new crop shortly. We quote Wheat nominally 95ca$1,00 for spring, $1,10a1,15 for winter.

BARLEY—wanted at $1,00.
RYE—firm at 45½.
POTATOES—$1,00a1,25 for old; new selling at $1,25a1,50.

Chicago Market.

CHICAGO, August 14.

The market this morning opened with a little better feeling, and holders advanced their views. Buyers did not come forward freely, however, and but few transactions took place. There is considerable inquiry for spring wheat and sales to store and mill were made at 95a1,00.—Some holders ask $1,05 free on board. In the afternoon the market was much firmer, and corn which would not bring over 46 cents in the forenoon would sell for 47 cts. Wheat also improved. Oats are firm and in demand at former rates.—Democrat.

Janesville Markets.

JANESVILLE, Aug. 14.

Considerable grain in yesterday, which sold at reduced prices. Wheat comes in quite freely and the quality is excellent. It is a bitter pill to the farmers to take the prices offered; but they will have to come to it and grumbling will not do any good.

CORN—Remains a former figures 35a37.

New oats are coming in, and show the affect of the drouth to be light.

Complaints from all quarters are made of the shortness of the oat crop, which must rate high for the coming year.

WHEAT—88a92.
RYE—30a35.
CORN—Ear, 28a30.

POLICE COURT, AUGUST 14.

BEFORE CLINTON WALWORTH, POLICE JUSTICE.

Nancy Carney, charged with vagrancy, sent to the Poor House; Mathias Gable, charged with being drunk and disorderly, discharged for want of testimony; John Hanon, charged with disorderly conduct, case continued to August 15th; John Ryan, for being disorderly, fined $3,60. Darby Carney, disorderly, discharged for want of witnesses, Gehung Deitz, disorderly, fined $1,00; John White, charged with being disorderly, discharged on payment of the costs; Charles Johnson was arrested for an assault and battery.

The defendant was tried, found not guilty, and discharged.

Henry McNeil, charged with being drunk, fined $3,00, it being the third offence. The Court notified the defendant that if he was brought up again and convicted of a second offence he would fine him $15 or $20.

A young woman named Annie Cogswell came in and applied for a warrant against Sarah Oakley for an assault and battery upon her; asserting that she had been beaten Mrs Oakley with a hickory cub, and bitten, exhibiting the marks on her arm of a severe bite, and a bruise or graze upon her face. The warrant was issued, and the case was to come up this morning for trial.

The Cricket Match.

The Match between the Ripon and Granville Cricket Clubs vs the Milwaukee Club, which occupied portions of two days, terminated on Wednesday in favor of the Milwaukee Club. The game was vigorously contested, and the Ripon and Granville players, tho' encountering veterans, bore themselves manfully and well. They particularly distinguished themselves as fielders, and the wicket-keeping of Mr. Hurst, was not to be beat; but against the sure and steady round arm bowling of Howard and Barnett, they could not make many runs. The following is the score:

Milwaukee winning by 48 runs.

The return match is to be played at Granville on the 2nd day of September.

A match between the Chicago and Milwaukee Cricket Clubs is on the tapis. A challenge, too, is looked for from the Cleveland Clubs, who have now quite a reputation as Cricketers. When shall we hear from them?

HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY EXHIBITION.—We dropped in for a few minutes yesterday at Young's Hall, and was much pleased to find so fine a show in two of the Departments, those of Flowers and vegetables. While there were, we think, finer than at any previous August exhibition, the show of Fruits was very meagre.

Of Vegetables, and very superior samples, there were enough there to fill double the number of tables; while of Flowers, the display of bouquets of various shape, and of roses, dahlias, balsams, verbenas, &c. &c., was beautiful indeed.

We are unable, from want of space, to give the list of premiums this morning, but will give it to-morrow, when we hope to be able to say more of the Exhibition.

ESCAPED FROM JAIL.—A Counterfeiter, who was committed to jail some weeks since, to await the action of the Grand Jury, on a charge of passing counterfeit money, made his escape from the jail on Tuesday night or Wednesday morning, and has not since been heard of.

We understand that in the place of the escaped prisoner, the German who had charge of the jail has been confined in the cell, on a charge of connivance at the escape although he protests his entire innocence.

We believe the Sheriff offers a handsome reward for the capture of the escaped, and if he does not get the counterfeiter, will hang on to the unfortunate German.

OVER ZEALOUS.—At the Buchanan gathering, Monday night, upon the adjournment of the meeting, "three cheers for Buchanan" were called for and responded to. Immediately there was a call for "three cheers for Fremont," and these were given with equal vigor and volume. Hereupon, several policemen, set on by one or two over-zealous Buchaneers, undertook to arrest some of those who had cheered for Fremont. Instantly a crowd gathered round them, and, after some sharp talk, the policemen were persuaded not to stretch their authority quite so far as to arrest men in the streets who hurrah for Fremont under pretence that they were committing "a breach of the peace."

FIRE.—An alarm of fire for the Third Ward was sounded between 9 and 10 A. M. yesterday. It proved to be the frame warehouse, at the foot of Jefferson St., on the river, heretofore used as a freight house for Clement's Line of steamers. The flames spread with great rapidity, and in a short time the building and contents were entirely consumed. The warehouse was owned by John M. Stevens, of New York city, uninsured, and valued at $1,500. The contents were worth about $1,000—of which $800 was in chicory, belonging to S. Conrad; there was also a carding machine and a lot of railroad spikes. The fire was, no doubt, set by design; the building being unoccupied at the time.

FIREMEN'S EXCURSION.—Engine Company No. One, of this city, left by the boat, last evening, on a pleasure excursion to Chicago. They mustered between forty and fifty strong, and, arrayed in their neat uniform, made a very handsome appearance. They took their powerful engine and a band of music with them. As the weather is very delightful, and the moon nearly at the full, they have the promise of a very agreeable trip. We commend them to the hospitality of the Chicago Press and Firemen.

A STOLEN DOG FOUND.—Policeman Capron, yesterday, took from a man a handsome liver colored pointer bitch, which he had brought to the city. The dog belongs to a man named Middleton, living near Fox Lake, Dodge County, and, it appears, was borrowed for a day's hunt and stolen. The man had with him a good double-barreled gun, which he has sold in this city, and which, it is probable, was stolen also.

DELIVERED UP ON HER BAIL.—A woman named PLAFF, held for trial on a charge of larceny, and out on bail, was given up by her bondsman, Mr. Turck, and new bail given by Mr. Weil. The other woman named HARDER, for whom Mr. Turck was also bail, has run away; $50 reward is offered for her arrest by Mr. Turck.

OCCULTATION OF JUPITER.—On Tuesday, at about 1 P. M., there will be an occultation of Jupiter with the Moon, the planet being hidden for nearly an hour.

The figures of the Occultation, as calculated for the Washington Observatory are as follows:

Immersion, meantime, 1h. 5m. A. M.
Emersion, " " 1h. 59m. A. M.
Duration, 54 minutes.

RAILROAD VOTE.—A friend informs us that a vote was taken, yesterday morning, on the train of cars from Chicago to this city, which resulted as follows. Fremont 41, Fillmore 9, Buchanan 6.

FURNACES FOR DWELLINGS, &C.—Richardson & Gray, at their depot, in Young's Hall, Wisconsin street, invite public attention to their patent Furnaces for dwellings, &c. See their advertisement and examine their stock.

WILLIAMS' ADDITION.—See, under the head of Special Notices, an advertisement in relation to sales of lots in Williams' Addition.

GREAT TRIAL DRUMMING MATCH.—A contest of a peculiar character comes off at Military Hall, on Saturday evening. WM. NEVAN, late of the U. S. Army, now of Leland's Band, Chicago, and T. J. HALBROOK, of Burkhardt's Band, Chicago, come here to play a match with their drumsticks for a Gold Watch. Eighteen tunes are on the programme, besides the whole Camp Duty, from the Reveille to the Tattoo. "For particulars see small bills."

City Land Office.

GREAT AND EXTENSIVE SALE of Lots in KILBOURN CITY, situated on the Wisconsin River, at the point where the Lacrosse and Milwaukee Railroad crosses the river, and must and will be the important station between Milwaukee and La Crosse.

The Wisconsin River is capable of furnishing the greatest Water Power of any river in the United States. The manufacture of lumber, of which over one hundred millions of feet are annually manufactured on the Wisconsin River, will furnish immediate use for the greatest portion of this water power. The Wisconsin River abounds in pine forests which are more extensive than those any other river in the West.

The site of Kilbourn City is magnificent; being a plain rising from a bluff elevation of 50 feet at the river bank to an elevation of some 200 to 250 feet, where it meets the table land two miles east of the river. The whole is Oak Openings, and the land lays beautifully.

The best, purest and softest water can be had by digging or boring. Kilbourn City was laid out and building commenced in Sept. last, since which time some 15 or 20 buildings have been enclosed, at a cost of from one to three thousand dollars each, and great numbers of others are in process of construction.

In fact, it would require two columns of one of our daily papers to give an adequate account of the advantages of Kilbourn City. One word is sufficient and that is this. There has been no city laid out in many years which has offered so many inducements and advantages, and where capitalists can invest their money so certainly as in Kilbourn City.

To those who are emigrating to this country here is a great opportunity. Go and and attend this sale, which comes off Monday, August 15th and continues from day to day through the week. Over one thousand lots will be offered. The terms of payment will be very easy. A small amount will be required down, and the balance on long time, (particularly to those who intend to build.)

Kilbourn City is in Columbia Co., State of Wisconsin—You take cars from Milwaukee to Beaver Dam, where you will find conveyance to Kilbourn City. Maps of said city will be ready in a few days, and can be obtained by calling at my office.

THE EAGLE

STEAM FOUNDRY!

—OF—

TURTON & SERCOMB,

296 298, 300, 302 and 304 West Water St.

IS STILL IN FULL BLAST, WORKING DAY AND night to supply the daily increasing wants of the Badger and other States.

In order the better to do this, the proprietors have erected a large brick Foundry in addition to their former premises. They have added to their stock of Tools a large Planing or Shaping Machine, three Lathes, and a Machine for making bolts, and are now putting in a Steam Engine of — horse power to drive the whole, thereby adding to the former facilities for the successful carrying on of the Foundry, Machine, Engine and Blacksmithing business. They never were in a better position for doing business, and in any department.

In regard to the character of the work got up by this

the Proprietors refer to that in successful operation through the country as their best recommendation, as it can speak for itself. All they can say is, that they are both PRACTICAL MECHANICS, and know how work should be done as well as the next man.

They continue to manufacture FLOUR and SAW MILL GEARING, and STEAM ENGINES, on the most approved principle,

They have always on hand a large stock of BRASS WORKS, such as GUAGE AND CYLINDER COCKS, OIL CUPS AND COCKS, and STEAM WHISTLES. Also TURTON'S FILES, which they will sell at the lowest cash price.

They are also Agents for EASTMAN'S PATENT STEAM GUAGES, which are well worth the attention of all those who use Steam Engines.

In conclusion, they invite a continued share of the patronage of their old friends, and solicit a call from all those in want of Saw or Flouring Mill Work, assuring them that no exertions will be spared to render the Old Eagle worthy of the reputation it has already gained.

Their motto is, "Excelsior."

The House then concurred by 7 majority in an amendment similar to one stricken out by the Senate, providing expenditures for arresting, prosecuting, or detaining persons charged with treason or other political offences growing out of the legislature of Kansas or the Topeka Constitution.

The Senate proceeded to the re-consideration of the Bill making appropriations for various civil items.

THREE P. M. REPORT.

LATER FROM CALIFORNIA—DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.

New Orleans, Aug. 12.

The steamer Danil Webster arrived to-day from San Juan, with California dates to the 21st ult. News from Central America meagre. Rivas holds Leon against Walker, and, in conjunction with Guatamala, was fortifying it with a force of 3,000 men. Walker was soon to attack him with an effective force of 1,000 troops. Costa Rica was preparing for another invasion of Nicaragua. Mora had put down the revolution against him, but was to resign.

A fleet of seven British ships, mounting 180 guns, were in the harbor of San Juan, under command of Admiral Erskine. The British screw steamer Panama was wrecked near Cape Farrier; the crew were saved, but the vessel lost.

ADDITIONAL FROM CALIFORNIA.

From the Alta Californian of July 21st, we learn from Grass Valley that a fire broke out on Saturday, in the rear of Dr. Alvan's fire proof buildings on Pine street, which spread to the adjoining building, occupied as a brewery, and then spread across to the U. S. Hotel, and downwards and upwards with great rapidity, raking the whole of Broad street, Main street, and the cross streets, consuming all the express offices, banking houses and churches, and the new Court House. The persons burned to death, as far as known, are J. Hager, teacher; J. Johnson, ex-Deputy Surveyor; S. W. Fletcher, late District Attorney; William Anderson, of the Democrat; and Wm. Williamson, the plasterer, was burnt, but not fatally. The whole of the business part of the town is entirely consumed, embracing from 150 to 200 acres of ground. The loss is variously estimated from two to three millions of dollars.

From Washington—Trouble in the Cabinet.

WASHINGTON, Aug 13.

It is rumored this evening that the new steamer Merrimac is to be ordered to France to carry out Secretary Dobbin, who is to succeed Mason, Minister to France, and that Senator Mallory or Mr. Bobcock of the navy will also go.—I also learn that Mr. Mason has asked to be recalled. There has been trouble at the White House in regard to the removal of the Kansas Judges; it has been reconsidered at the instance of Senator Toombs and other members. The President this evening was determined they should be removed.

There is a report current that the President and Cabinet were in session to-day, and five were in favor of removing Judges Lecompte and Cato. and releasing the free state prisoners of Kansas. 3 against it.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.

SENATE.—Mr. Pearce, of Md., introduced a joint resolution, which was passed, accepting a portrait of John Hampden, presented by John McGregor, Secretary of the Board of Trade, England, and directing the same to be properly framed and placed in the Executive mansion. It was painted either by Van Dyke, or Sir Peter Lely.

A protest of the Senate of Iowa relative to the election of Mr. Harlan, was made the order of the day to-morrow.

HOUSE.—The House voted to retain the appropriation of nearly $183,000 for books which the Senate had stricken out, and added a proviso that any member who was unwilling to receive his share may so inform the Clerk, who shall report the same to the House next session.

Accidents—Storm—Yellow Fever South.

New York, Aug. 14.

Last evening the barricade of the foreign quarantine gate was battered down by a party of captains and sailors who came to the ferry landing near Quarantine, and then directly to the barricade as above. As the work was completed, three cheers were given, and the party peaceably proceeded to the tug and returned to the city.

PORTLAND, Aug. 14.

Yesterday at Yarmouth, a sail boat while returning from the Island, was struck by a whirl wind, drowning seven persons, viz: Mrs. Asa P. C. Winslow and two small children, Mrs. Jno. Brown and children, and a daughter of Adams Baker, and three others who were on board were saved.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Aug. 14.

The board of health of this city reported additional deaths from yellow fever, but no increase in the number of cases.

CHICAGO, Aug. 14.

The loss by the fire last night may reach $200,000.

ST. LOUIS, Aug 14.

The electoral ticket nominated by the Benton party, is withdrawn in favor of that nominated by the anti-Benton party.

A CARD.

THE UNDERSIGNED considers it his duty publicly to return his thanks to Dr. STADLER for the humane and disinterested kindness which he showed to me during my sickness.

I lay in a perfect palsy, and was incapable of moving for nearly thirteen months. Dr. Stadler has restored me to health and my business again, while others pronounced my condition incurable, and I cannot too highly recommend Dr. Stadler to the afflicted of Milwaukee.

To my friends and acquaintances I would say that I have again opened my shop, on East Water street, opposite the Market House, and commenced my business of Brass, Copper and Silver Plater, and humbly request the same patronage and encouragement which I have always heretofore enjoyed. W. AUER.
